

SO I DID

A crazy voice in my head told me to quit my job & work on a farm.

I didn't think much about gardening until 20 years later, when one of my grandpa's seeds sprouted in my brain.

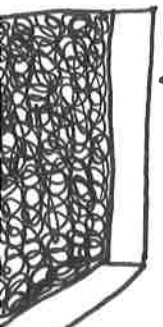

My first packet of actual seeds came from a Happy Meal, of all places.

My grandpa let me grow them in his garden.

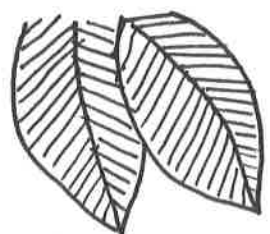

I loved it.

NOTHING -> GROWING

came from subsequent years of FAILURE

REAL LESSONS

I learned so much on the farm, but all my

As a kid, I was what you might call

INDOORSY

My grandpa was always planting seeds in our heads, & trying to get us kids outside.

and eventual SUCCESS

Gardening has taught me many things over the years, but the most profound has been to TRUST in the ability of all things to

GROW

